Address:
0 Cross Keys Highway
Cross Keys, SC 29379

Location:
Take Hwy 49 east towards Union from I-26. Travel approximately 7.7 miles. Property is on the left across the highway from the Cross Keys Plantation.

Property Highlights:
Gently sloped woodlands with level open areas perfect for a hunting retreat or horse property. Currently managed for hunting, over 100 +/- acres of majestic hardwoods are interspersed with food plots, mature pine stands, and some brushy bedding areas that teem with deer and turkeys. There is plenty of open acreage for a dove field, or instead, the open land can be easily developed for horse pastures. A nice road system with smaller trails provides access, and Wofford Branch originates on the property and becomes a bold creek with rocky riffles. The historic Cross Keys Plantation is located across the highway. Located on high ground less than 1.5 miles from the Tyger River and 4.5 miles from the Enoree River, this area offers great recreational opportunity in the nearby Sumter National Forest. Only 7.8 miles from I-26, 30 miles from Spartanburg, 50 miles from Greenville, 78 miles from Charlotte, and 70 miles from Columbia.

Taxes: $206/year (2019)
