Address:
Brooke Rd
Fort Meade, FL 33841

Location:
The property is in a quiet rural residential neighborhood just east of historic Fort Meade. Surrounded by orange groves and ranches, this site is peaceful yet close to amenities like grocery, churches, parks, schools, and major highways.

Property Highlights:
The property is a rectangle 72 acres perfectly suited for a homesite with recreational acreage. Plentiful wildlife such as deer, turkey, and a multitude of Florida birds call this site home. A spring-fed creek runs along the western edge of the property, giving the land some change in elevation and creating some beautiful scenery. The native pastures have old oaks, pine, and bahia grasses. In the southwest corner, the land has been cleared and young pines have been planted and irrigated, creating a future wind and privacy screen. In this corner is also a small well suitable for a homesite. The property is fenced and is currently grazed by the owners cattle.

Taxes: $372/year (2019)
