Property Highlights:
Reeceburg Road Timber Investment is a well-managed stand of Loblolly Pine contributing 48 acres to a larger package of land stretching across East Alabama and West Georgia. The current owner is a career forester and has managed the land by the book. With consistent thinning and harvesting rotations, these properties are turn-key timber investments. This property is located about 12 miles south of Rome, GA, a couple of miles east of Hwy 27. Features include an abundant stand of mature pines and a creek stretching over 2000 linear feet. Along with timber value, the property is perfect as a hunting and recreation property or possible residence. CALL TODAY TO GAIN ACCESS TO THIS PROPERTY! Contact agent for access.
