PROPERTY SUMMARY

Nestled along the upper Roanoke River basin is this 226 +/- acre do-it-all sportsman's dream. Northampton County is known for large trophy whitetails, countless turkeys, and great duck waterfowl hunting along the rich crop and woodlands throughout the Roanoke River valley. There is no better place to find those trophies than the hardwoods, managed pines, and swamp bottoms found on this property just outside Rich Square, North Carolina. This property boasts several duck holes scattered throughout that is a huge draw for every waterfowl species that utilizes the Roanoke River flyway. With endless management opportunities, this property has yet to realize its full potential in an already game-rich area. This is your chance to own some of the best hunting North Carolina has to offer.
