PROPERTY SUMMARY

Timber investments like this one don't come on the market very often! Located roughly 50 minutes from Raleigh, NC, this tract provides both seclusion as well as close proximity to anything you might need. This property has been a successful timber harvesting tract for decades. It is currently home to pine that are approximately 10 years old. Water is available from the town of Sanford and could be brought to the property. The possibilities are endless with a tract such as this. Contact Paul Goins to learn more!
