PROPERTY SUMMARY

This property is perfect for someone looking for recreational/hunting land not far from Auburn or Birmingham. Its 99 acres is made up of approximately 60 acres of hardwood and pine mix, with the remainder being in natural 13 year old reforestation. The natural thick cover is prime deer habitat and the food plots scattered throughout make it convenient to hunt. This property also has a cabin on it so that you can spend the night, and a shed to store all your gear and equipment. There is also a gorgeous creek that runs through the property with several tree stands already set up in prime spots. If you're looking for 100 acres of timberland with good hunting, county road access, and a cabin, this is a property you should check out.
