PROPERTY SUMMARY

This lakefront land near Kimberling City and Branson is one of the largest undeveloped sections of land on Table Rock Lake, creating a multitude of opportunities including residential development, vacation properties, vacation rentals, subdividing into smaller land parcels, golf courses, horse property, hunting, other recreational use or other commercial developments. The property is currently free of any improvements, making it a blank canvas for any of your development ideas. The rolling terrain provides for fantastic lake views from various locations, and there are three areas of red-line zoning which are approved for the construction of boat docks with multiple slips.
