PROPERTY SUMMARY

Beautifully secluded hunting ground surrounded by the Mark Twain National Forest! If you are looking for a true Ozark Mountain hunting tract, this one's for you. Accessible along well-maintained National Forest roads, this 240 acre property is ideal for a weekend hunting getaway.

Located minutes north of Lesterville and the Black River, this property is loaded with hunting opportunity: Deer, turkey, hogs, and small game. The property has been previously used for outfitting purposes and shooting lanes, food plots and road systems are established.

The property has been select cut and currently holds an exceptional amount of marketable timber. Logging roads throughout allow easy access.
