PROPERTY SUMMARY

This 70+ac tract could be many different things. It's great for a little morning hunting track close to town or the best way to get away from a stress filled day at the office. The property could also be permanent residence as building sites could easily constructed with utilities close. Boundaries are clearly marked with corners and a survey is available for interested parties as well. So come out and see what could be with this blank slate conveniently located just out of town.
