PROPERTY SUMMARY

If you are looking for the perfect place in the country to build a home this is it. The property has small beautiful standing hardwood timber. This is a very private and secluded tract in Moore County NC. The property has a Sanford address because it sits in the corner of Moore County where the Lee, Moore and Chatham county lines come together. The property is very close to Deep River. It is in an area that is mostly undeveloped. There are no covenants or restrictions on this property. This property is ideal for a country home.

A soil test was recently completed on this property and a conventional septic site has been identified.
