PROPERTY SUMMARY

Here is a rare opportunity to own a piece of Wild West history and your chance to find some buried treasure in Fresno County, CA! The remarkable 1426-acre Elwood Ranch is strategically located between Squaw Valley and Wonder Valley, roughly 35 miles from Fresno.

Perfect for any developer, aspiring buyer, or a 1031 exchange, this property is comprised of 13 parcels and features multiple seasonal streams, waterfalls, and year-round spring-fed ponds. A divided paved road runs through the entire ranch, along with well-maintained dirt roads for excellent access. Plentiful wildlife, valuable timber, and panoramic views of stunning mountains, including Dalton Mountain, complement this unique property's invaluable history.

During the late 1800s near the end of their time in California, the notorious Dalton Gang used parts of this property as a hideout from the law. Following a successful jailbreak in September 1891, members of the Dalton Gang made their camp
