PROPERTY SUMMARY

This East Tennessee mountain acreage adjoins the Cherokee National Forest and offers buildable homesites with mountain views, an established interior road system, and two points of access with electricity. Spring fed creeks, along with plenty of mast-producing hardwood trees, attract a wide variety of wild game to the property. It's a great fit for anyone in search of recreational land or buildable acreage in the Smoky Mountains. Call Matthew Carr at 855-384-LAND for more information.
