PROPERTY SUMMARY

This versatile tract with rolling topography offers many uses on a tough-to-find combination farm. This property consists of a fairly even mix of hay meadow and pasture with an adequate amount of trees perfect for deer and turkey hunting. It also contains a decent-sized pond for cattle with good perimeter fencing on three sides. The property is centrally located between Drumright, Stroud, and Bristow. With paved road frontage, electricity available, and a fantastic building site with a view overlooking Creek county's rolling wooded hills, this tract fits the mold for a great place to start your homestead!
