PROPERTY SUMMARY

Wooded residential acreage located in Jones County South of Laurel. Take advantage of the two paved road entrances and favorable topography to build your dream home. The property is located minutes from Downtown Laurel offering shopping and dining. The local economic base is driven mainly by Manufacturing and the Service Sector. The oil industry is very important to Jones County's economy as well. Jones County continues to grow both economically and in population. This has allowed the County to maintain a steady growth in tax revenues without a significant tax increase. The County government tax rate has increased an average of only 4% over the last 10 years. The steady growth of industry, education, and culture has given rise to an ethnically diverse population of over 65,000 inhabitants.
