PROPERTY SUMMARY

This rural Gaffney 54.8+/- acre recreation and home site property is ideal for multiple home sites, and is currently a well managed hunting property. This property features a network of managed trails/roads providing easy access throughout for foot travel or ATV. The hunting is excellent in this area, and this tract has several great deer stand locations. There are numerous acorn producing trees, muscadines, and blackberry bushes throughout the property. There are several newly planted Apple and Peach trees on the property, which are already producing fruit. The year round creek provides a great water source for wildlife and sits at the back of the property. The property is known to have plenty of deer, turkey, and rabbits. It is only about 30 minutes to Spartanburg, and approximately 1 hour from Greenville County, making this a great hunting property with a lot of potential. If you're looking for the perfect hunting property with the potential for several rural home sites, this is it.
