PROPERTY SUMMARY

Historic property in the secluded mountain village of Doe Hill. This circa 1872 homestead was built by a prominent local doctor. Grand old home with good bones, several outbuildings, and 1.6 acres, is ready for your restoration and will provide a perfect canvas for your mini-farm and homestead. 4 bedrooms, 1 bath, and several living areas for either more beds or baths. Original hardwood and pine floors ready to be returned to their beautiful luster. Built-in cabinetry and closets were luxuries in the 19th century. Four chimneys. The village of Doe Hill offers breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains. Outbuildings include a workshop, a small horse barn, chicken coop, and the original doctor's office. This could also be developed into an outstanding vacation rental. It would be an excellent escape to the Highland lifestyle. Offered AS IS.
