PROPERTY SUMMARY

"The old man used to say that the best part of hunting and fishing was the thinking about going and the talking about it after you got back." -Robert Ruark

This tract in Duplin County, NC provides an opportunity to talk about hunting and fishing when you get back to the multi-bedroom cabin that is located on the 65 acres of outdoor mecca. With access to the Cape Fear River, this property gives you an awesome fishing experience combined with the many big turkeys and mature whitetails that roam this tract. The cabin is very nice! That's all that can be said about it as it has all the amenities and comfort of a home that any man or woman could ask for. There is a 40-acre private island that was created in the 1800s through an ox-bow in the River which provides seclusion and refuge for the game using this area. The owners have created a nice trail system to allow access to all corners of the property and a clean boat ramp to help navigate the waters of the Cape Fear River. For more info
