PROPERTY SUMMARY

Fully wooded in a remote setting offering many opportunities that are hard to find in tracts this size. A wet weather creek cutting through the northwest corner of the property mixed with some topography change, thick brush, and mature timber create great habitat for wildlife. The property has gravel county road frontage on the south side and is less than half a mile from a paved road. Create a homestead or take advantage of the hunting and recreational opportunities. Electricity is available at the road with surrounding water wells no more than a couple hundred feet deep. This property sits just 15 minutes southwest of Bristow and 45 minutes to downtown Tulsa providing excellent access to town. Additional land available.
