PROPERTY SUMMARY

There are waterfront properties and then there are unspoken, remote, beautiful waterfront properties! This is the latter of the two. 261 acres in Hyde County, NC just outside of the small town of Scranton. This tract of land sits with a good stand of plantation pines that encompasses a majority of the property's front section. Once you drive down the well-maintained road system, you begin to get the water-induced windy chill that many have felt at some point in their life if you've ever lived near water. As you swing around the last turn, you notice the beautiful water views that lead out to the Pungo River. These views are STUNNING! With 6 waterfront lots consisting of 10-12 acres each, there is great potential for development, rod and gun club, or a single home with acreage!
