PROPERTY SUMMARY

Paradise along Black Creek. This peaceful sanctuary offers year round fun and recreation with turkey, deer, wood duck, and squirrel hunting. The camp has one bedroom with a bathroom downstairs and a loft with a full bathroom upstairs. The rustic yet well built cabin will keep you comfortable and rested after you have played on the sandbars along the creek or had a long day of hunting. The only sounds you hear are that of mother nature. There are two food plots on the property which also adjoins the Desoto National Forest on the entire southern boundary. If you are looking for a small tract to enjoy with access to thousands of acres of public land with endless opportunities come see this one along Black Creek.
