PROPERTY SUMMARY

This home and property is in one of the most sought-after areas in eastern Idaho. Only a few minutes walk to the Caribou National Forest and a short drive to Freedom, Idaho and Etna, Wyoming, this property is in the heart of quality forest, excellent big game hunting, and a mecca of outdoor activities. The outdoor activities can even include enjoying peace and quiet with a soft breeze. The home was built in 1979 and needs some modernization. However, the home already boasts a main level and a basement, four bedrooms, three full bathrooms, a large family room in the basement, and a living room upstairs. The two-car garage is well oversized. The home is fed by a spring and the water is clear and refreshing. The home is approximately 1 ½ miles down a two-track road. There is no winter maintenance on the two-track road. Access in the winter is limited to tracked vehicles, snowmobiles, or snowshoes.

The 25 acres have a balance of wooded areas with aspens and pine trees as well as meadows and grasses. This property is
