PROPERTY SUMMARY

This private scenic tract, only an hour from Birmingham, feels like you're in the Smokey Mountains of Tennessee. With breathtaking views and an abundance of wildlife, you can feel like you're on vacation year-round. The property is loaded with big hardwoods and has a flowing creek in the northeast section of the tract. A powerline traverses the property east/west giving you ample spots for wildlife food plots. There are homesites with spectacular views throughout the property. It has a great internal road system through it, and power is conveniently located nearby.
