PROPERTY SUMMARY

Welcome to Halpino, a Mississippi River Legacy Property. Once managed for decades by the famous Tara Wildlife, a premier destination for trophy whitetail deer hunting. Halpino consists of 2,061 +/- acres along the eastern banks of the Mississippi River just 10 miles north of Vicksburg, MS. Here on Halpino, you will find a plethora of wildlife that includes trophy class whitetails, migratory waterfowl, wild turkey, alligators, small game, doves, bald eagles, and excellent fishing opportunities. Halpino is a full turnkey offering with a rustic 5,000 sq ft. lodge, skinning shed, bow shooting stand, above power, and running water. The access on Halpino is excellent - you will enter directly from the Mississippi River Levee which takes away any ingress or egress easements. This once-in-a-lifetime opportunity is a historic event and one you will not want to miss out on. Halpino offers you and your family a year-round destination to enjoy everything the outdoors in the Mississippi Delta has to offer.
