PROPERTY SUMMARY

This classic mountain acreage, adjacent to the Sylva city limits, is perfect for your legacy family estate, recreation, and natural enjoyment. Easy access off the state-maintained road takes you into a level area with a bold creek and the former site of a large barn. An old farm road that was recently re-opened leads through the hardwood forest to an upper cove with excellent privacy, long-range mountain views, and spectacular views of Sylva NC. This property is protected by several steep slopes up to 3100' ridges. Looking at the prior use as a cattle farm with pastures and interior roads show many opportunities for new uses from areas that could be returned to meadows, and a perfect home or cabin site up in the protected cove that looks out over downtown Sylva. There is an old mine (probably for mica) on the property as well. Close to restaurants, breweries, and only 13 minutes to Western Carolina University. Buyer to survey portion of parcel lying east of Dills Cove Rd. 2023 Forest
