PROPERTY SUMMARY

Big Swamp Hunting Preserve contains over 400 acres of upland island surrounded by an additional 1,000 acres of natural and wooded land. There is a duck impoundment, corn fields, food plots, deer feeders, and soybean fields - all designed for hunting multiple guests. The tract is home to ducks, deer, fish, turkey, and even quail. After passing through the brick-columned gate, the entrance carries you through a pine forest, over a steel bridge, and onto the island where you are greeted by the pavilion and a bulkhead for tying off boats. The property is full of trails/roads, shooting lanes, and miles of river frontage! Big Swamp Hunting Preserve serves as the ultimate turn-key outdoor hunting and fishing property already outfitted with shooting lanes, miles of roads, heated box deer stands, and duck blinds. There is a pavilion at the water's edge for gatherings and deer hanging stations waiting ready. A pheasant tower is on site for tower shoots as well as covered dog kennels and bird pens used to hold phe
