PROPERTY SUMMARY

This diverse waterfront hunting and timber tract with camp is located a short drive from Dothan, Alabama, an area known for quality hunting. This turnkey property is located just a few miles south of Abbeville, on Highway 99, and includes established food plots, shooting houses, an intricate road and trail system, and diverse timber including mature hardwood and pine, with Abbie Creek frontage. Quality deer and wildlife management practices and a year-round feeding program have been in place, and there is tremendous hunting opportunity for trophy whitetail deer, abundant turkey, dove, and other small game. There is abundant storage with a metal building next to the camp, allowing you to keep all of your tractors, UTVs, etc. out of the weather. The camp consists of 3 bed 2 bath with kitchen a den and covered parking. To set up a showing, please contact Forrest During at 205-902-8779.
