PROPERTY SUMMARY

Featherhill Lake Farm, 140 acres of land in Sumter County, Alabama, boasts a restored 1830s log cabin with three bedrooms and a spacious loft. The cabin includes a fireplace made with handmade pre-Civil War bricks. The master bedroom has a bathroom with a walk-in closet, tub, and marble shower. There is also a third bedroom with two twin beds. The cabin features a large kitchen with a pantry and pecky cypress cabinetry, as well as new appliances. Downstairs, there is a bathroom with a marble shower. The property includes a front porch deck and a sunset patio with a fireplace and hot tub. Additionally, there are raised box gardens with irrigation and mature landscaping surrounding the cabin. The cabin was repainted in 2023 and equipped with new appliances. Other amenities on the property include three large barns, a storm shelter, and three 15-20 acre trophy bass lakes that have been managed for trophy bass for the past two decades. These lakes consistently produce 10-15-pound bass. There a
