PROPERTY SUMMARY

SHOWN BY APPOINTMENT ONLY: Located on the Chesterfield and Darlington County line, this recreational property provides the perfect getaway spot with acreage and a formerly restored tobacco barn turned cabin overlooking a private pond. Deeded easement from Patrick Highway provides access to the cabin and property while providing a buffer from the road for both serenity and privacy. Around the pond from the cabin sits a calm, shaded, fenced pasture with trails around leading through the remainder of the property. One property line runs the Darlington/Chesterfield County line which runs along Cedar Creek—this offers a great duck hunting possibility in the bottomland. Cabin offers a great screened porch overlooking the pond, full bedroom, full kitchen, full bathroom and open living space/dining area teeming with rustic feel begging for family gatherings and entertainment. Full cabin back up Generac System in place as well as small storage building/workshop for toys or tack. Property is access
