PROPERTY SUMMARY

Nation Land Realty is pleased to offer Calebee Creek Lodge. This turn-key hunting-fishing-recreation property is located near Auburn in Alabama's fertile Black Belt soil region along the Calebee Creek drain basin, a major tributary to the Tallapoosa River that consists of thousands of acres of bottomland hardwoods and is flanked by very productive farmland and is considered to host some of the best trophy deer and turkey hunting in the Southeast. This property has a very diverse wildlife habitat, from upland pines that are a great habitat for quail and turkey nesting to bottomland mast-producing hardwoods along Calebee Creek, oxbow ponds for waterfowl, and an overall complete bounty of resources for wildlife. Calebee Creek Lodge amenities are 1st class, consisting of the main lodge, stocked bass lake, 2 guest lodges, an enclosed shop, pole barns, and much much more. This is truly the ultimate sportsman's paradise, offering year-round outdoor activities.
