PROPERTY SUMMARY

Soggy Bottom is a premier 1,119± acre hunting and event property in Alabama's Black Belt, perfect for a family retreat, corporate getaway, or income-producing business. Established in 2013, it offers trophy hunting for deer, elk, fallow deer, turkey, quail, pheasant, and waterfowl, plus professionally managed lakes totaling 41± acres for fishing. The property features two incredible custom lodges with event spaces, commercial kitchens, guest suites, outdoor entertaining areas, and scenic lake views. Amenities include shooting ranges, duck ponds, a breeder pen, event pavilion, game fencing, barns, and miles of paved/internal roads. Native habitat, year-round food plots, and merchantable timber enhance the property's recreational and conservation potential. Soggy Bottom offers resort-level amenities at a fraction of replacement cost — a rare opportunity for investment, recreation, and luxury in a world-class setting.
