PROPERTY SUMMARY

This is a rare opportunity to own a multi-use property in one of the most sought-after areas of Alabama. Beautiful home sites along with large agricultural field and large hardwoods give you a multitude of options. The ag field could easily be converted to pasture for horses & cattle. The area is known for growing some of the biggest whitetail deer in the state and it's also great turkey hunting. There is power and city water nearby with access to the property provided by deeded easement.
