PROPERTY SUMMARY

If you are looking for a great homesite out in the country, then look no further. This property would allow for great views depending on the homesite selection as well as being a quaint recreational retreat with hunting opportunities. The property is within a short drive of local amenities near Bloomfield and Linton, IN as well as I-69. Not looking to build, the property could be a great location to place your camper. Greenwood Lake is a short drive to the south, offering great camping and boating activities. The property also offers a mix of hardwood timber that could be a great investment for the new owner.
