PROPERTY SUMMARY

Have you ever desired to own a large acreage timber tract surrounded by over 15 miles of waterfront in an area that provides seclusion and privacy from any and all neighbors? This 5,609-acre Carteret County tract provides all that and then some! Located in the small town of Stacy, NC sits a dirt road with a big red gate that is the keeper to a treasure of a property. Bordering one side of this tract is the largest single-acreage farming operation in the state known as Open Ground Farms, and on the other three sides resides both Long Bay and Turnagain Bay which provides over 15 miles of water frontage to this remote property. There are ATV trails, shooting lanes, and hunting paths everywhere along with an abundance of wild game from whitetail and turkeys to big black bears and many species of ducks. To further make this a TRUE hunting camp is the camp house at the end of the road with full electricity to give the amenities many would love to have at a camp house.
