PROPERTY SUMMARY

This spectacular waterfront property situated along SR 124 just across from the Ohio River, also borders Indian Run, and is an absolute must-see! Boasting beautiful views, river access, fields, and a nice mix of hardwoods! There are multiple build sites with public water, natural gas, phone/internet, and electric all available for connection. The seller also has had the property vetted for septic installation and has received pre-approval. If you're looking for a hunting property, the deer and turkey sign is plentiful! Meigs County is becoming known for its high-caliber whitetails, and this property should be no exception. There is a nice trail system that makes access throughout the property a breeze. There are two additional tracts just over 30 acres each, that border the west side of the property, being offered for sale as well. So, if you're looking to build your dream home, or cabin, or to just show up to hunt and fish, this one checks all the boxes!
