PROPERTY SUMMARY

3.04 acres in rural Pulaski County Illinois with a new Tru-Bilt 36x60 pole barn with a 10ft lean-to with concrete floors and a tac room, located on a quiet paved road. The property is currently fenced for horses, the owner states that he will leave the fences, or he will take them down if the new owner doesn't want them. This property has private access to over 3000 acres of public hunting. There is electric on the property that needs to be hooked up and there is a well that has tested well. This piece has potential build sites or could be turned into a hunting camp to hunt all of the state ground Southern Illinois has to offer, and right down the road from Mermet state fish and wildlife area.
