PROPERTY SUMMARY

Togo Land Company, LLC, often called Togo Island, is renowned as a premier destination for outdoor enthusiasts and hunters. Situated just upstream from where the Mississippi and Big Black Rivers meet, the property spans 7,202.7 contiguous acres, offering an unparalleled experience in recreational activities.

With a history of over 50 years, Togo Island has built a reputation as a "deer paradise" and a haven for those passionate about hunting and fishing. The area is especially noted for its trophy deer hunting, frequently described as a "deer factory" due to its exceptional habitat and management practices. Alongside deer hunting, visitors can enjoy excellent opportunities for duck, turkey, small game hunting, and top-quality fishing.
