PROPERTY SUMMARY

Privacy, seclusion, panoramic views for this rural building site that is within a couple of miles of town!

+/-11.30 acre building site is now available! Or purchase the entire 123.50 acres of land and building site together. Survey is being completed to split the building site from the ag land.

This building site is in pristine condition and offers privacy and seclusion. The home has likewise been well-maintained and offers a great front deck with access from the kitchen and dining area. A huge second floor room offers additional bedroom or play space or ample room to add a master suite with second bath. The double attached garage enters into the finished breezeway that offers great space for coats, boots and other accoutrements. Then, two nice condition outbuildings for equipment, boats or other toys.

See the land listing for additional information on the land only.
