PROPERTY SUMMARY

This recently timbered recreational and hunting tract is located just outside the city limits of Scotland, GA. This property is easily accessible from multiple access points along Scotland Towns Rd. On-site, you will find Mature Hardwood timber flats and scattered Pine timber that provide ample cover and natural food sources for an array of wildlife known to inhabit this Telfair County area. Ample internal roads and trails provide access to every acre of this property and its wet weather water features located near the rear of the property. Also at the rear of the property is a railroad with right of way, the ideal boundary, providing a buffer from adjacent landowners, and a great reference point when spending time out in the woods. This property is quiet and secluded just off the beaten path, with power located nearby for anyone seeking to build a hunting camp or homestead. Call Austin Hill: 229-999-4436
