PROPERTY SUMMARY

With 171 acres of recreational and timberland, this pine plantation tract is perfect for a variety of hunting pursuits including bears, deer, and turkeys. Located in Lenoir County, just south of Kinston, North Carolina the tract is in a great location, and within an hour of the beach and only minutes from town. The access road on this tract also makes it great for a fun camping trip, ATVing, or hiking while providing access to the entire property. A nice power line runs through the middle of the property that provides a nice shooting lane for a box blind. There is timber investment potential as well, with pines planted in 2009.
