PROPERTY SUMMARY

This timber tract features merchantable and pre-merchantable stand of pines, offering a prime opportunity for investment or recreational use with established wildlife opening and a trail system. With convenient dirt road frontage, the property also has a creek, adding natural beauty and potential for wildlife viewing. Located just minutes from Abbeville and a short drive to Headland and Dothan, AL, this tract provides both seclusion and easy access to local amenities, making it an ideal retreat or future timberland asset. Tracts this size and well-managed don't hit the market very often. Call for a showing or more information today.
