PROPERTY SUMMARY

For the first time, National Land Realty offers a 1/14th Equity Share on 7,500± acre Lukens Island, where the Neuse River, South River, and Pamlico Sound meet. With over 20 miles of unspoiled waterfront and 47 miles of internal roads, this secluded yet accessible peninsula in Carteret County, NC, is a true hidden gem.

A 5,400 sq ft, 16-bedroom lodge overlooks the South River and features a commercial kitchen, entertainment area, boat ramp, dock, and lift. Powered by dual 65kW generators, it supports off-grid living. The island includes steel buildings for gear storage and is surrounded by 50,000+ acres of protected, unhunted land—ideal for trophy deer, bear, turkey, waterfowl, and world-class fishing.

A development plan for 146 waterfront lots (10 acres each, no zoning) offers investment potential. Just 35 minutes from Beaufort Airport, Lukens Island is perfect for sportsmen, families, or developers seeking a rare legacy property.
