PROPERTY SUMMARY

Located a short drive from I-65, Bay Minette, and Atmore, this scenic property offers a lot of options. With its gentle topography and mature timber overstory, it's ideal for development into acreage home sites or into a convenient hunting tract. Access and development is easy with 2,736 feet of frontage on Robert White Road, and utilities are available at the property along the road frontage. Other features include a spring fed creek, potential fishing lake sites, existing food plots to chase deer, turkey, and other wild game, long views, and multiple sites for homes, camps, or barndominiums. Offering convenient isolation, you'll have plenty of room to spread out while still being convenient to town, making this unique offering one to see ASAP. Feasible divisions will also be considered. Please inquire for additional information.
