PROPERTY SUMMARY

This 55+/- acre property offers a rare opportunity for those seeking to invest in or develop land. Located off Hwy 90, the property consists of two tracts separated by a scenic road, providing both privacy and easy access. Whether you're looking to expand your agricultural holdings, create a peaceful retreat, or develop thriving food plots, this land is brimming with potential. Ideal for rural living or recreational purposes, this property is easily accessible from Hwy 90, offering convenient access to Taylor County's amenities while maintaining the peace and seclusion of country living. The two tracts are separated by a well-maintained road, offering flexibility for development or farming.

The open fields, combined with wooded areas, provide an excellent environment for wildlife, making this property a prime location for hunting and outdoor activities. The terrain and location make it an ideal spot for food plots, recreational hunting, or simply enjoying the beauty of nature.
