PROPERTY SUMMARY

If you've been looking for a great property close to the Hoosier National Forest then look no further! Now offering this 20 +/- acre tract near Freetown, In. The property boasts 1,280 +/- feet of road frontage with an established driveway already in place. A 30'x12' structure in a small clearing has already been started allowing the new owners to create their own small cabin or have as a simple equipment shed. This property would allow for great hunting opportunities as well as camping and 4 wheeler riding. A great main trail runs through the property just waiting to be explored. Several 1,000's of acres of the Hoosier National Forest both in Jackson and Brown Counties are within a 6 minute drive in any direction allowing for ample outdoor opportunities. Monroe Lake, nestled just to the west, has several boat ramps within a 40 minute drive for the fishing and boating enthusiast. Give me a call at 812-416-4547 for a private showing.
