PROPERTY SUMMARY

This 23+/- acre property features plenty of road frontage off Red Oak Rd. in Giles county. Mostly timbered with a few areas clear for camping/building. East Fork Bradshaw Creek runs through the property providing plenty of water for wildlife creek wading. There is a branch that runs north and south of the property between two hills creating several pinch points for Whitetail deer hunting. North end of property is flat leading into the creek and across the creek south inclines to a flatter top overlooking the property. Nice tract to camp and hike on as well has hunting deer and turkey.
