PROPERTY SUMMARY

This versatile tract offers a strong combination of agricultural and recreational use. It features a healthy young stand of timber- providing future income potential and habitat diversity. The property is set up for cattle production and contains quality pasture fields and is fenced and cross fenced. Livestock waterers are located throughout the property with county water and electricity on-site. There is one open air building with electric and another barn (needs some work) as well. This farm would be good for starting or expanding your farming operation and build your new home.
