PROPERTY SUMMARY

Nestled near Franklin, NC, this stunning 87-acre property blends meadows, woodlands, and pastures with over 1,800 feet of protected Little Tennessee River frontage—ideal for a legacy family retreat, luxury equestrian estate, or private community. Just hours from Atlanta, it offers a conservation-minded buyer a serene escape with cool mountain air, long-range views, and abundant wildlife. The land features 15 acres of manicured pastures, 25 acres of young forests with mountain vistas, and mature woodlands with scenic trails. A riverfront conservation easement allows recreation and agriculture, while protected streams enhance ecological value. Paved road access adds convenience to this secluded paradise. Whether you dream of a private family compound, an equestrian haven, or a sustainable enclave, this rare property offers endless potential. Your Blue Ridge legacy starts here.
