PROPERTY SUMMARY

This versatile tract of land is ideally situated just outside of Ashford, Alabama, offering a unique opportunity for agriculture, residential, or potential commercial development. With access to utilities, paved road frontage, and additional dirt road frontage, the property is easily accessible and well-positioned for future growth.

Currently used for crop production, the land is open and well-maintained, making it suitable for continued farming or transition into a development project. Whether you're looking to subdivide, build, or invest, this property offers flexibility and strong potential.

Possible division may be considered. Don't miss this chance to secure valuable acreage in a desirable and growing area.
