PROPERTY SUMMARY

Located along the Great Pee Dee River and Kingsburg Bridge, the Kingsburg Pee Dee River Tract offers recreation, agriculture, and investment potential. With ± 155 acres of uplands and ± 60 acres of wetlands, it provides prime habitat for whitetail deer and wild turkeys—ideal for a family farm, hunting club, or private retreat.

The property boasts 3,600 feet of river frontage along a high bluff, with open, walkable bottomland the entire way. There is also over 1 Mile of continuous road frontage along Highway 378. Known for quality fill dirt, this corridor offers added income potential given its proximity to growth in Horry and Florence counties.
