PROPERTY SUMMARY

Looking for the perfect getaway spot or a small hunting tract with big potential? This 11± acre parcel in central Mississippi could be exactly what you've been searching for. Located just 10–15 minutes north of Kosciusko and approximately 1 hour and 20 minutes from Jackson, this property offers the peace and privacy of the country without being too far from town. With generous road frontage along Attala Road 3232, access is easy and convenient. The land features a beautiful mix of pine and hardwood timber in various stages of growth, providing excellent bedding and cover for deer and other wildlife. This area is known for quality hunting, and this tract is no exception — whether you're a seasoned hunter or just looking to enjoy nature, the opportunities here are endless. Small, manageable tracts like this are hard to find — especially ones that check all the boxes for hunting, recreation, and off-grid potential. Don't miss your chance to own a piece of Attala County.
